The President's Message—

With the Next Generation in Mind—

Heather LaCost, PhD

*National President of Psi Beta
Wauboosee Community College
Sugar Grove, Illinois*

Welcome Psi Beta members and advisors! Thank you for making the commitment to work together to accomplish Psi Beta's mission of promoting excellence in scholarship, leadership, research and community service. I am honored to serve as your National President for this year. I recently served as Midwestern Vice-President for two terms and serve as an advisor for our chapter at Wauboosee Community College.

A colleague shared a quote with me at the beginning of this academic year:

"Bear in mind that the wonderful things you learn in your schools are the work of many generations. All this is put in your hands as your inheritance in order that you may receive it, honor it, add to it, and one day faithfully hand it on to your children." - Albert Einstein

Shortly after I reflected on this quote, I had the pleasure of sending our oldest child off to Kindergarten. As I watched, a little misty-eyed, she happily went off to school, and I realized that she and the other little kids are now the next generation, the hope for our future. It made me reflect on the education I hope my daughter will receive. I wish for her the same type of experiences that Psi Beta provides for our students.

Psi Beta is an active and thriving organization. For example, Saddleback College held its own Psychology Research Conference with speakers, poster sessions, and 160 students from all over Southern California attending. Students at Cerritos College organized an Environmental Week, which led to: instituting recycling on their campus; the purchase and planting of a tree; and the creation of a student scholarship. The chapter at Carroll Community College held food drives, clothing drives, book drives, and programs such as Adopt-a-Family to help individuals in need in Carroll County. Collin County Community College is holding the National Psi Beta

Building Bonds— a Psi Beta / Psi Chi Collaboration

Alberta Johnson, PhD

National Past-President of Psi Beta Georgia Highlands College, Rome, Georgia

Rationale for New Award

Following the passing of Ruth Hubbard Cousins, the Psi Beta National Council early in 2007, decided to honor the memory and work of this exceptional leader by developing a new national Psi Beta award. A major purpose of the award was that it be reflective of Ruth's pioneering spirit and professional passions. Ruth Hubbard Cousins served as the Executive Director of Psi Chi, the national honor society in psychology, from 1958 to 1991. By all accounts she was the primary force responsible for transforming Psi Chi into the highly successful and distinguished organization which it is today. Not only was she the lifeblood and inspiration for Psi Chi, Ruth Cousins, along with daughter Carol Tracy, founded Psi Beta, the sister honor society of Psi Chi.

Today many Psi Beta members continue their education into four-year colleges and universities and become members of Psi Chi at their new institutions. Since both honor societies have comparable missions and share many goals, collaborative efforts between Psi Chi and Psi Beta are logical and desirable. In the pursuit of scholarship, leadership, research, and community service, well planned collaborative endeavors will ideally serve to strengthen the bond between Psi Beta and Psi Chi members and will be mutually beneficial to students as well as to the broader community.

advisors of the transforming power of Psi Beta.

Psi Beta must continue to adapt and grow with new generations of students and advisors. We are creating a new national award to recognize collaboration between Psi Beta and Psi Chi chapters. We are refining awards to best recognize chapters who work toward Psi Beta's mission. We are developing new Psi Beta merchandise. We are investigating nationwide opportunities for students to conduct scientific research. We are working to expand opportunities to promote psychology to underrepresented students through mentorship programs like Diversity Project 2000 and Beyond. Psi Beta will continue to strive to meet needs and create new opportunities for advisors and students.

Thank you for all of your efforts. They are deeply appreciated and make a tremendous difference. I look forward to seeing all the wonderful activities accomplished by Psi Beta chapters. I wish you all a happy and productive year!

standards of chapter excellence will qualify for the Chapter Excellence Award. Both the standards and the award's design are under development. I will announce the details in a few weeks through an Executive Director's bulletin. This is a very exciting new development that will encourage chapters to fulfill Psi Beta's mission and, thereby, be recognized for their exemplary efforts. The good news: There will be no limit to the number of chapters that are recognized, as long as each chapter meets the standards, submits an application for Chapter Excellence recognition, and provides supporting evidence.

National Research Project – We have been working with nationally known psychologist, Dr. Bernardo Carducci, to establish a Psi Beta research project. All chapters, even chapters at colleges that do not offer a research methods course, will be able to participate. The study's general purpose is to do something positive in the way of helping first-year students persist in reaching their academic goals rather than dropping out. More specifically, the study will investigate the extent to which freshmen college students experience shyness, become involved in and connected to their campus, and desire help becoming further involved and connected. Individual Psi Beta Chapters will be able to use the data gathered for the study to produce and present research posters at local and regional conferences. In addition, chapters will have the opportunity to submit their data to a national study database; chapters doing so will receive additional recognition for their research work. The project can be extended locally as service projects in which chapters design and evaluate alternative interventions to help students become engaged in positive ways with their college's co-curricular life. Details on how to become involved in this study will be announced in a few weeks – be watching for my fall Executive Director's bulletin. (Note: Dr. Carducci, himself a former community college student, directs the Shyness Research Institute at Indiana University Southeast.)

Merchandise – Last year, you may know, Psi Beta began offering attractive necklace charms and tie tacks having the Psi Beta logo. Hooded sweatshirts also became available last year. In a few weeks we will begin to offer navy blue knit shirts having the Psi Beta logo. The shirts will come in an array of both men's and women's sizes. Be watching the Psi Beta website for this new item!

Synergy Psychology Conference again this October to showcase research in the field and by psychology students. These are examples of how students are developing their leadership skills and already making a difference at their colleges and in their communities.

As advisors, we can have satisfaction and pride in knowing that our efforts help students develop their individual talents and skills as future leaders, researchers, and professionals. Psi Beta students will be the next generation who will be able to advance the field of psychology. As I begin my seventh year of participation, I can tell you that my investment of time and energy has been returned to me tenfold, when I hear from my student alumni, when I see the enthusiasm for new activities proposed by new members, and when I see the difference we can make in our community. Consistently, we hear from students and

In addition, the contributions made by the chapters and their participants will be preserved for historical purposes, including preservation in the Archives of the History of American Psychology, Akron, Ohio.

Houston Community College (TX) Psi Beta Chapter was established in 1989. Since then, it has inducted new members every year, usually once in the fall semester and once in the spring semester. At each induction ceremony, an invited speaker gives a lecture on a topic of great interest and relevance to psychology prior to the induction of new members. At the Fall

In addition, the chapter participates in community service activities. This fall, faculty advisor, Prof. Linda Whitney, is conducting a weekly brain exercise class for senior citizens in the nearby Spring Branch community with the help of Psi Beta students. Psi Beta students are encouraged to participate in the annual psychology fair. Many have produced outstanding work and won prizes. Recently, Psi Beta member Debbie Champagne was awarded a highly competitive Coca-Cola Scholarship.
