

Student Agreement
Allyn and Bacon Research Paper Competition

Psi Beta, in accordance with the APA Ethics code, holds forth high standards of integrity for all of its members. For the Allyn and Bacon Research Paper Competition we apply the APA Ethics Code 8.11 for plagiarism which reads, “Psychologists do not present portions of another’s work or data as their own, even if the other work or data source is cited occasionally” (American Psychological Association, 2002, Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct, <http://www.apa.org/ethics/code2002.pdf>). As pointed out in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (2001), “Quotation marks should be used to indicate the exact words of another. Each time you paraphrase another author (i.e., summarize a passage or rearrange the order of a sentence and change some of the words), you will need to credit the source in the text” (p. 349). Changing just some of the words in a sentence without changing the basic sentence structure is considered plagiarism. Please read examples of acceptable and unacceptable paraphrasing on the Indiana University’s website, “Plagiarism: What It is and How to Recognize and Avoid It,” at <http://www.indiana.edu/~wts/pamphlets/plagiarism.shtml#original>.

All papers submitted for the Allyn and Bacon Research Paper Competition will be run through a plagiarism check website, such as Turnitin.com. If plagiarism is detected whether intentional or unintentional, the paper will be disqualified from the competition and the student and the Psi Beta advisor/sponsor of the paper notified of this fact. By signing this agreement you affirm that you have read the above website on plagiarism and have followed its guidelines for not plagiarizing by appropriately paraphrasing other people’s ideas and giving credit for those ideas using the APA style for your citations.
