Final Message	Thank you for this information. We will use your email address to send you a link to the study. The entire study will be administered online. In order to participate, you'll need to set aside 30-40 minutes where you can focus and not be disturbed. If you are not in a room alone, you should have a headset available for completing the "thinking activity" in an early part of the study. Also, the study should be completed on a desktop or laptop, not a smartphone. Thank you!
